Gospel Meditation
ENCOURAGE YOURSELF TO A DEEPER
UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

There is a thing called “false piety.” It is when we wear a religious disguise of devotion, attend to our obligations, and outwardly abide by rules while being inwardly unkind, uncharitable, and exclusive. Wearing the right clothes, saying the proper prayers, being in sacred places, and reading devotional books, those exhibiting false piety craftily try to control others using the pretense of love. The Pharisees, consistently criticized by Jesus, are prime examples. Thinking they are superior to others, they foolishly believe they are better positioned with God and more worthy of God’s attention. Forming an exclusive “club,” they divide things between “mine” and “yours” and “us” and “them.” They quickly criticize and point out flaws and errors in rituals and thinking. Conformity becomes the first commandment and control is the game’s name. The requirements for “club membership” are clear: do what we do, think what we think, and believe what we believe. Attempting to control others using the lure of “status” or “salvation,” they seduce others into thinking that conformity is the only way to holiness. Clinging to “my beliefs,” “my parish,” “my way of thinking,” they fail to see the more significant relationship with God that is veiled in all of these superficial rules and practices. Shallow, hollow, and empty vessels, they gloss over the more important virtues of justice, mercy, faithfulness, and forgiveness. Sparkling clean on the outside, but dirty on the inside. Spiritual arrogance is a grave sin. It alienates and hurts the little ones, those considered “least” in the kingdom. God knows no favorites. Everyone belongs regardless of whether you are an official, bona fide member. Sometimes membership may be a detriment to actually living the Gospel if you’re joining the team for the wrong reasons. The genuinely humble ones may not appear to be overly “pious.” They may not know all of the proper prayers or abide by all of the correct rituals, but they know that they are broken and need mercy. There is no shame in being broken. In fact, many things need to be broken in order to be what they truly are! There is a reason Jesus told us to pray in private. It’s only between you and God. It is nobody else’s business. ©LPI

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
More Than a Buzzword

If you roll your eyes at the mention of the term stewardship, it’s probably because, in the modern Church, stewardship has become something of a corporate uzzword. It’s often used interchangeably with the concepts of financial ndowment and volunteerism. What’s wrong with supporting your parish monetarily? What’s the issue with giving of your time in service and ministry? Nothing at all, in fact — we should all be doing more of these things. But as we do them, we should be constantly asking ourselves the all-important questions: Why am I doing this? How am I doing this? For whom am I doing this? A donation to the parish school is a great thing. But ideally, the donor would have made the gift regardless of the ability to name the school gym. A tireless volunteer who always finds time for her parish certainly glorifies God with her commitment. But hopefully, her commitment would be just as enthusiastic if she knew there was no prospect of being written up in the bulletin as Volunteer of the Month. God knows no favorites. The prayer of the Pharisee in the temple did not justify him because the Pharisee didn’t really mean it as a prayer. His intent wasn’t to thank God, his intent was to draw attention to his gifts. God did not reject the Pharisee’s fasting and his tithes, he rejected the spirit in which they were offered. God desires to transform us — our hearts, our souls, our communities. When we give of ourselves — either through money or through time — he is honored by the act of giving, not the gift itself. We should never make the mistake of thinking that stewardship is “time, talent, and treasure.” Stewardship is the spirit of offering these gifts freely.

A CALL FOR FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP
Participate in American democracy by voting on November 8th for candidates and legislations that protect the integrity of children, women, and families. The Church ask the faithful to make their election decisions with a properly formed conscience guided by Catholic Social Teaching. The Church also calls people to engage in political but civilized and compassionate conversations with members of their families, parishes and other communities. Find resources at <https://sdccatholic.org/election-faithful-citizenship-resources/>

EMERGENCY DISASTER FUND SPECIAL COLLECTION
Our parish is participating in a nation-wide special collection for Emergency Disaster Relief called for by the U.S. Catholic Bishops as a response to the recent hurricanes. Proceeds from the collection will help the Bishops' Emergency Disaster Fund to provide support for humanitarian assistance, long-term recovery and significant Church needs caused by recent calamities. Contributions can also be made [on our parish web site] or at www.sdccatholic.org, click on the blue Donations button.

LEARNING ABOUT THE PRIESTHOOD
On Saturday, November 12, the Diocese of San Diego is hosting an Explorer Day for those men who are interested in exploring a possible vocation to the priesthood. The day will be held at St. Francis Center on the campus of the University of San Diego (5998 Alcalá Park, San Diego 92110) from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. If living a life of service for Christ and the people of God is attractive to you, take advantage of the opportunity to attend this upcoming Explorer Day. Pick up an application at your parish office, or call Fr. Eric Tamayo at St. Francis Center at (619) 291-7446.

Mission Statement
"A Tiny Church with a Big Heart"
We, the people of God at St. Pius X Church in Jamul, Seek to live the Christian life by celebrating God's Word, Living the Eucharist, and reaching out in peace and justice to all of God's People. We are to build a loving supportive community in Jamul, By listening and sharing with each other. We believe, with God's grace, the power of Jesus' example, and the gifts of the Spirit, we will fulfill Christ's Mission to love one another and establish the Kingdom of God on earth.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Sacramental Seal

Question: What is a sacramental seal and where did it come from?

Answer: Leaving more than just a memory, there are some events in our life that are truly transforming, making us different people. The same thing can be said of spiritual things, especially sacraments. A sacramental seal or character is a theological concept to describe the life-changing and permanent effect of three sacraments on the person: baptism, confirmation, and holy orders. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that these sacraments confer a seal "by which the Christian shares in Christ's priesthood and is made a member of the Church according to different states and functions. This configuration to Christ and the Church, brought about by the Spirit, is indelible" (#1121). Once we receive these sacraments, we are forever changed. It's a spiritual "point of no return" whereby we take a step forward in our faith journey. We are marked as people of faith, as those who have received the Spirit and as those called to serve in ordained ministry. That is why these sacraments are received only once. The direction is set, the choice is made, and we are called by God to be his people. Nothing can change that, not even our own sinfulness. ©LPi

Join us in Praying the Rosary

Tuesday through Friday at 7:10 am inside the parish before 7:30 am mass at St Pius X

LIVE THE LITURGY

To be humble means to see ourselves as we are. It comes with the recognition that we are never perfect, better than another, or free of sin. The humble person knows their faults and failings as well as their successes and triumphs. They also realize that they are nothing without God, especially God's mercy. The humble one knows who they are, who they can be, and how they have fallen short. Being desperately in love with God, they know how they have sometimes given in to their desires rather than God's will, almost with a sense of embarrassment. Being justified in our relationship with God is not about a list of the good things we do and the bad things we don't. We are vindicated when we realize how totally dependent we are upon God's gratuitous, abundant, and unconditional love. It is a gift we often take for granted and is often unappreciated. ©LPi

The Knights of Columbus and MMLG will lead the rosary for everyone who would like to participate every 5th Sunday of the month. Remember our Blessed Mother's promise to those who pray the Rosary - "I promise my special protection and greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary". Pray the Rosary with the Knights and the Ladies Guild. This month it will be on Sunday, October 30, 2022 at 8:00am.

ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT

THURSDAYS
8:30AM—5:00PM

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Sirach teaches us that the Lord hears the prayers of those most vulnerable — the oppressed, the widow, the orphan, and the poor — because God cares deeply about justice. Who do you know in those categories? How can you reach out to them?

Second Reading: In his second letter to Timothy, Paul speaks of his impending death and in his firm belief that he will receive a just reward for his ministry. When you think about the end of your life — what do you believe will happen to you for eternity?

Gospel Question: In the parable of the Pharisee and tax collector, Jesus teaches crowds the proper approach to prayer: "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." What do you think God says in response? ©LPi

Observances for the week of October 23, 2022

Sunday: World Mission Sunday; St. John of Capistrano, Priest
Monday: St. Anthony Mary Claret, Bishop
Friday: Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." — Lk 18:13-14

Saint Anthony Mary Claret October 24

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is also known as the "spiritual father of Cuba." He was born in Salient in Catalonia, Spain, in 1807. He became a weaver, like his father, and was very talented. But he studied in his spare time to become a priest and was ordained in 1835. In 1849 the saint founded the Claretians, a religious institute of missionaries, and a companion order of women religious who served as teachers for girls. From 1850 to 1857 he served as Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba, where he worked diligently to reform both clergy and laity. He opposed concubinage and instructed black slaves, and championed family-owned farms instead of the mass farming of a sugar cash crop. These stances were vehemently opposed by many, and Saint Anthony was the target of assassins. He was recalled to act as Queen Isabella II's confessor, a duty he reluctantly agreed to, with the exceptions that he would reside away from the court, attending the household only to hear confessions and instruct the children. While in Spain he founded the Religious Publishing House and wrote or published 200 Catholic books and pamphlets. He went into exile to France with the Queen's household during the Spanish Revolution of 1868. The saint returned to Rome to Participate in Vatican I where he defended the infallibility of the Pope. He died in France in 1870 and was canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII.

In Loving Memory of Those Who are Forever in Our Hearts.

Through the years all of our events have been supported by different sponsors. Our White Elephant 2021 is no different. EDCO, family owned and operated Since 1967 has served the integrated waste and recycling needs of our parish events whom has supported our JamulFest Fundraiser for many years. We would like to extend our appreciation and gratitude to them. EDCO you have been an important part of the great success that we have in our events. THANK YOU for your continuous support.

THE YEAR OF GRACE

FOODLAND Mercado

We the people of God of St Pius X Catholic Church in Jamul, seek to live the Christian life, by celebrating God's word, living the Eucharist and reaching out in peace and justice to all of God's people. We are to build a loving, supporting community in Jamul. In order to achieve this mission and build this community we have much support. Foodland Mercado on Cardiff St, is a perfect example of this. Their kindness and generosity through many years towards our different events have made them possible and successful. This year their donation made our Fundraiser for our White Elephant Rummage Sale not just a reality but profitable for our Tiny Church. God Bless them and their families .
