Gospel Meditation

ENCOURAGE YOURSELF TO A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method. The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them. Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Mini Reflection: Jesus didn't come to fix the brokenness of the world. He came to fix our brokenness. He offers us not relief from the trials of life, but an answer to the question of how to live in joy, in love and in purpose in the midst of these evil days. These Evil Days "Alas, that these evil days should be mine." If you've ever seen "The Lord of the Rings," you might recognize this quote from "The Two Towers." The words are spoken by King Theoden at the grave of his only son and heir, as Theoden contemplates the coming war for Middle Earth, a war which has already claimed the life of his son, a war he wants no part of, a war that seems utterly hopeless and unwinnable. These evil days. You don't have to be a fantasy enthusiast or even a Tolkien fan to identify with Theoden here. We have all experienced this same feeling of despair, perhaps increasingly in this age of technology and social media, when the ills of the whole world — violence, injustice, moral disorder and chaos — are in our faces, on our phones, looming over our days. But when we despair like this, we forget an important truth: this is the time of fulfillment, and we are lucky enough to be living through it. Yes, the world is broken. It was broken two thousand years ago, too, when Jesus stood up in the synagogue on the Sabbath and read the words of the prophet Isaiah: "He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives...and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord." Jesus didn't come to fix the brokenness of the world. He came to fix our brokenness. He offers us not relief from the trials of life, but an answer to the question of how to live in joy, in love and in purpose in the midst of these evil days.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Gospel Question: We hear how Jesus began to reveal his true identity as Israel's long-awaited Messiah in his hometown of Nazareth. Have you ever received news that you thought was unbelievable? What was it?

1st Reading Question: Ezra and Nehemiah (the religious and political leadership of the day) grounded their work in Scripture. How does Sacred Scripture guide your life?

2nd Reading Question: Paul uses the human body as an analogy for the many and varied parts of the Christian community. What role would you like to have in your parish?

St. Thomas Aquinas | January 28

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great. His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

WHY DO WE DO THAT

Question: I've heard that love is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer: Charles Shultz, the creator of the Peanuts comics wrote, "I love mankind ... it's people I can't stand!" This good humored comment gets at an important truth. St. John wrote a very strong statement in one of his letters: "If anyone says 'I love God,' but hates his brother, he is a liar; for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen" (1 John 4:20). How often do we say "I love the homeless," but ignore the parish food drive? Or insist on the importance of respecting others, but don't bother to say hello to our cashier? If we can't love an individual person, we might not love people like we think, and we certainly need to work on our love for God. Love is "the theological virtue by which we love God above all things for His own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God" (CCC 1822). God knows acts of love of Him and others isn't always easy. So He invites us to pray for the grace to do it. The virtue of love gives us the grace and strength we need to offer our lives to God and love people in our lives, especially those who are difficult to respect, tolerate, and care for. Real love, of course, is risky. Real love wills the good of the other when we just want good for ourselves. Real love gets up on the cross when we'd prefer to take a nap in Gethsemane. Real love changes things.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus is the fulfillment of the Scripture passage he reads in the synagogue, a missive of promise and hope from an ancient prophet. But he invites us to be part of his work, here and now, in our own lives, our own communities. Be part of the fulfillment. ©LPI

Presentation for Couples and Families:

The Beautifully-Exhausting, Joyfully-Frustrating, God-Given Mess of The Family: Twelve Essential "Keys" to Living God's Plan for a Joy-Filled Family. Did you know the Church calls your family the "Domestic Church", a "school of love", and a "light in a dark world"? Yes, your family! Not because of what you look like, feel like, or have accomplished, but because of what you are. Family life often feels like a mess because true, authentic love is a messy project. Join the other "messy" parents, grandparents, aunts, and uncles for an evening of fellowship, faith, and encouragement. Damon Owens, international evangelist, husband, and father of eight will lead our discussion on 12 essential "keys" to living God's plan for a joy-filled family. Organized by the Diocese of San Diego in collaboration with the California Catholic Conference and Communion. Hosted by St. Michael's Parish in Paradise Hills (2643 Homedale St, 92139) on Monday, January 27 at 6pm. All are welcome! Free admission.

World Day of the Sick Mass: This will be held February 8, 10 a.m. at Good Shepherd Parish (8200 Gold Coast Dr. San Diego, 92126). It will include anointing of the sick and blessing of caregivers and ministers. We will also celebrate the Caring for the Whole Person 5th anniversary. Bishop Michael Pham will be the main celebrant for this multilingual Mass, and it will be livestreamed as well.

For additional information, go to <https://sdcatholic.org/event/world-day-of-the-sick-mass/>.

Diocesan Marriage Anniversary Mass: All married couples are invited to participate on Saturday, February 15 at 11 a.m. The Mass concludes National Marriage Week (Feb 7-14) and will be celebrated by Auxiliary Bishop Felipe Pulido at Good Shepherd Parish in Mira Mesa (8200 Gold Coast Dr, San Diego, CA 92117). The Mass serves to celebrate the incredible gift that marriage is to our spouses, families, and faith communities, and allows couples to renew their vows, whether they've been married for six months, one year, five years, or fifty-five years! Registration is not required, unless the couple is celebrating a silver (25 years), golden (50 years), or diamond (60 years) anniversary (we would like to recognize you in a special way!). For more information, contact John Prust at jprust@sdcatholic.org.

REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE

Reporting allegations of sexual misconduct: The Diocese of San Diego treats all allegations of sexual misconduct by clergy or Church personnel seriously and deals with them in a prompt, confidential and thorough manner. To report sexual misconduct by clergy or Church personnel, including abuse, please call Mary Acosta, Victim Assistance Coordinator, (858) 490-8353, email misconduct@sdcatholic.org, or visit www.safeinourdiocese.org. Situations of recent or ongoing sexual abuse should be reported to local law enforcement.
