

MARCH 8, 2015 THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Announcement Regarding New Bishop for San Diego

I am happy to announce that Pope Francis has appointed Bishop Brobert W. McElroy to be the sixth Bishop of San Diego.

Bishop McElroy was born in San Francisco in 1954. A fifth generation San Franciscan, Bishop McElroy lived until he was ten years old in Daly City. His family then moved to Burlingame. Feeling called to the priesthood, he entered Saint Joseph High School in Mountain View, the high school seminary of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Bishop McElroy decided to pursue college studies outside the seminary system. He graduated from Harvard University in 1975 and then received a master's degree in American history from Stanford University in 1976.

Bishop McElroy reentered the seminary in the Fall of 1976 at Saint Patrick Seminary in Menlo Park, California. He was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of San Francisco on April 12, 1980. After a few years in a parish and diocesan assignment, he undertook graduate studies in the field of Catholic Social Teaching, obtaining a licentiate in theology from the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley, a doctorate in moral theology from the Gregorian University in Rome and a doctorate in political science from Stanford. He returned to parish ministry in 1989. Bishop McElroy was appointed vicar general of the Archdiocese in 1995 and a pastor of a parish in 1996, where he served for more than fifteen years.

Bishop McElroy was ordained an auxiliary bishop of San Francisco on September 7, 2010 and served as the Archdiocesan Vicar for Parish Life and Development until his appointment to San Diego.

Bishop McElroy will be formally installed as the sixth Bishop of San Diego at a Mass to be celebrated at 1 p.m. at St. Thérèse of Carmel Parish on Wednesday, April 15.

I join Bishop Brom, Bishop Chavez, priests, deacons, religious and lay faithful in welcoming Bishop Robert McElroy to episcopal ministry in the Diocese of San Diego.

For their upcoming Spring Tea, Mother Mary's Ladies Guild (MMLG) has selected the "Virgin in Prayer" as their central image. [This Italian Baroque painting is by the 17th century artist Il Sassoferrato.] The Marian theme is also represented in the dedication of each table at the Tea to a different title of the Blessed Mother. The table hostesses chose titles ranging from the well known, such as Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Guadalupe and Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, to the less familiar ones of Our Lady of All Nations and Our Lady of the Doves. Pope Francis' favorite Marian devotion--Our Lady, Undoer of Knots--has also been selected. Ladies, come to the MMLG Second Annual Tea on Saturday, April 25th, and see the creative and lovely ways the hostesses choose to honor Our Lady.
