JUNE 21, 2015 TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL SUMMARY: MATHEW 4:35-41

Put yourself in this scene. You are in a small sailboat with the apostles. A great storm comes up and the waves crash against the boat. Jesus, who must be very tired, stays asleep. The apostles, afraid of drowning, wake Jesus up. "Be still," he tells the storm at sea, and at once there is a great calm. His disciples' mood switches from terror to awe at this sign, which recalls so vividly the words of God in the first reading.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR GOSPEL: Let us imagine that Jesus asks us, as he asked the disciples, "Why are you lacking in faith?" How will we answer? What is Jesus trying to show us in this event? No matter what happens in life, we can turn to Jesus who helps us and brings us peace. How will you bring his peace to others?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: When have you felt "the hand of the Lord" in your life?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION: When you are thinking about traditions in the Church, 1563 is a "watershed" year. The Council of Trent began a reform of the liturgy that put an end to old practices and set many of our present practices in place. For the first time, engaged people were absolutely required to appear before their parish priest, and to exchange consent in his presence along with two witnesses. To this day, Catholics are obliged to this form, namely: to marry another Catholic in the presence of a priest (or deacon) and two witnesses, unless dispensed from the law. The Council really didn't forbid customs and ceremonies that added life to the celebration, but the mood of the times was dark and somewhat austere. Practices like the blessing of the marriage bed or using a canopy for the nuptial blessing started to fade away, as did the custom of bringing the presents for the couple to the church and the addition of fiddlers and jugglers to the procession. The Council of Trent tried to preserve local customs, but the long-term effect was to standardize celebrations everywhere in the world.—Rev. James Field,

Religious orders are not formed for the purpose of gathering together perfect people, but those who have the courage to aim at perfection.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

THERE'S STILL TIME!!!!!

~May our efforts be blessed and may we grow as a unified and vibrant community of faith. ~

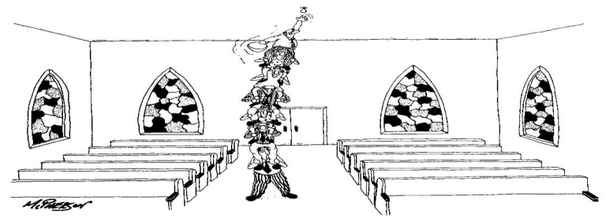
A note from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

In a letter from Bishop Robert W. McElroy he writes to ask your support for the Annual Peter's Pence Collection. Through your response to this appeal we will enable Pope Francis to offer emergency assistance to those suffering of war, oppression, and natural disasters. The theme of the collection this year is, Be a Witness of Charity. Through works of charity, as Catholics we provide a quiet but powerful witness of love and deeds to empower the weak, the defenseless, and the voiceless and to sustain those who suffer. Please be generous in responding to this appeal.

in Christ,
Rev. Higinio Garcia

Benediction Wednesdays 8:30AM-6:00PM
Come spend an hour with Him.



Changing that pesky light in the sanctuary required a team effort by members of the congregation.

What Makes a Dad?

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities, when nothing was more to add, he knew His masterpiece was complete, He called it "Dad"

Happy Father's Day
